COMMISSIONERS MET LAST NIGHT

Chief Goods Submits His Report For The Year

MAKES SUGGESTIONS

Says Larger Force is Needed. Also Two More Motorcycles—Members of Force Want Increases in Salary.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held last night. Only routine business was presented. Charles T. Goods, Chief of Police, submitted his annual report. It is as follows:

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my annual report for the year 1919, giving in detail the work performed, together with some suggestions which I feel will add to the efficiency of the department and improve its discipline.

The year just closed has been marked by a distinctive advance in the observance of discipline by the rank and file of the department. This is due to the conviction on the part of the members that you gentlemen, in whom is vested control of the department, will not tolerate dereliction of duty. Not only are the men observing the rules of discipline but there is a general tendency on their part to exert every effort to raise the standard of the department. This condition cannot but help increase the value to the force, and, with the men realizing that their superiors are determined to see that the people shall have the best possible measure of protection, there is a refreshing and apparent purpose on all sides to make the department one of the best regulated public safety bureau as we possibly can have with the small police force we have to do with.

I have given considerable thought to the needs of the department as regards its numerical strength, and I would respectfully suggest that you recommend to City Council that they consider the advisability of enlarging the force by an addition of ten men we are urgently in need of same. Outlying sections are building up so rapidly that there is a constant and merited demand for increased protection, at times, through illness and the assignment of patrolmen to plain clothes duty in emergency cases in which uniformed men would not be of service, under these conditions men in other wards are required to cover double territory. This does not permit of adequate service, especially at night, and the only remedy is to enlarge the department, to do justice to our citizens and the department we should have two plain clothes men and also two motorcycle men, at all times.

I recommend that two motorcycles be added to the equipment of the department, for traffic duty only, I will assure you that they will pay for themselves within two months, and they will add to the efficiency of the force 100 per cent, the old car should be kept at headquarters to run emergency calls.

I recommend that this department will be equipped with a camera so that we will be able to take photographs of the most important arrest made, and also finger-print system of which will be of value to our department and departments of other cities, so many of these criminals are again at large, and will no doubt continue their career here and elsewhere.

I would be lax in my duty to the city, if I did not again urge the necessity of a Police Signal and call up system, which is used by every city with an organized, disciplined police department, and adds 100 per cent efficiency to the work of the organization. The urgent need of direct and prompt communication at all times between the police station and the men on the various beats, is demonstrated here nearly every day, and complaints telephoned into the station by citizens in the various parts of the city, should at once be communicated to the patrolmen in that section so that attention can be given at once, and not have the delay and annoyance of calling the business houses, and sometimes residences, on a man's beat asking them to look out for an officer, and tell him to call headquarters, occasionally some time elapses ere he is located, resulting in disgust to the party needing police attention, and censure to the department when they have honestly exhausted every means provided to give service, at times when a call comes in for an officer there is not but one man at headquarters so it is impossible for him to leave the station to respond to the call.

I would also beg to recommend that each year hereafter a fund be set aside in the budget for the bringing back to Alexandria of prisoners arrested for this department in other cities. As a rule now citizens who are defrauded or wronged by those who makes their escape to other localities, when an arrest is made are called on to defray the expense of bringing back the fugitive. This is unjust and I believe the city would be justified in standing the expense from the standpoint of police policy.

Owing to the high cost of living I respectfully urge upon your honorable body to recommend to City Council, for an increase in salary for each member of the Police Department.

Two members of the department was called by death during the year. John T. Roberts died on Feb. 14th after twenty-three years of service, and Walker Campbell was shot February 14th and passed away February 16th, at Alexandria Hospital after nine years of service.

Gentlemen, I will assure you if this equipment I have asked for is added to this department, I will guarantee you it will pay for its self in fines in short order.

There were one thousand six hundred and sixty-eight cases tried in Police Court during the year. Property of the value of $11,718.69 was reported lost and stolen and of that amount $10,510.00 was recovered and returned to the owners. During the past six months this department has collected in fines over five thousand dollars.

I will express my deep appreciation of the uniform courtesy and spirit of co-operation shown in my relations with the members of your honorable board, and further to thank you for freely rendered assistance and beneficial counsel. The officers and men of the department also are entitled to my personal thanks, their conduct and faithfulness on the whole having proved satisfactory.

Very respectfully,
C. T. Goods,
Chief of Police.

"JEKYLL-HYDE" COP CONVICTED BY PAL

Brooklyn Policeman Found Guilty of Stealing Skins

ARE VALUED AT $18,000

Attorney for Man Declared Two Convicted Men had Tried to Save Themselves by Convicting Crouse.

New York, Jan. 22.—Patrolman Herman Crouse, "a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde", according to District Attorney Lewis, was found guilty last night of grand larceny and burgalry by a jury before Supreme Court Justice Kapper in Brooklyn.

The verdict convicts Crouse of complicity in the theft of 4.400 opossum and fox skins valued at $18,000, from a Brooklyn factory. Another policeman, Peter Rueger, under indictment in the case, turned State's evidence, and his testimony helped materially to convict Crouse, his former "pal", "Eddie" Cannon, a chauffeur, also indicted, added another link, in the chain which fastened itself about Crouse.

Rueger said it was Crouse who, meeting him in night patrol, broached the subject of looting the fur factory, Cannon declared he drove Crouse and others several times to the vicinity of the factory so that the policeman and his cronies could inspect the ground.

William J. Fallon, Crouse's lawyer, did not call a witness. In his summing up he charged that two thieves, Rueger and Cannon, had conspired to save themselves by convicting Crouse. District Attorney Lewis referred to Crouse as "a master mind," "a burglar in a policeman's uniform."

WARNING BY HEALTH DEPARTMENT

On account of the continued bad weather, there are numerous cases of grippe, colds and sore throat. I strongly urge our citizens not to expose themselves to infection by attending public meetings where people come into close contact, as the danger of infection from coughing and sneezing is great. Do not drink out of any glass or cup unless you know it has been carefully washed in hot water. Remember that common colds and throat affections are highly contagious.

Use common sense and protect yourself from trouble.

Louis E. Foulks, M. D.
Health Officer.

SPORTS

The Dreadnoughts had little trouble defeating the Army Medical School quint last night at the Armory, 48 to 12, the Madicos never having a look in with the fast going clubmen. The Dreadnoughts went at top speed throughout, and the result was never in doubt.

Frasca in forward and guard and Crilly in a forward position did well, while a long shot by Johnny Wenzel was the feature spot of the evening. Weiss, the Medico forward, also made two swell shots. The Dreadnoughts showed marked improvement in their team work, passing and general shooting ability.

Mondays game between the Virginia A. C. and the 5th Engineers showed that the Bridge Builders were coming along at a fast pace, and it will take every team to show real speed to him the former easy marks of the league. The Virginias managed to win out 23 to 17, but it was only due to the superior shooting of Jimmy Alexander that they were able to cope, for the remainder of the team was played to a standstill by the soldiers. Peyton's work in center showed improvement but he was played by a mighty good man. Coodles Owens in guard and Deane in a forward also impressed the fans. The soldiers will present several new faces next Friday night, January 29, when they play the Dreadnoughts.

Tomorrow night, some real sport is on tap again, with the Dreadnoughts meeting the Lyceums. This game has aroused quite a bit of interest among local fans, as a defeat for the Dreadnoughts will put the Virginias in first place in the league race and will tighten things up in the chase for the silver cup donated by A. G. Spalding and Bros., of Washington, D. C. The game will start promptly at 8 o'clock with Capt. Hans Kramer as the official.

A meeting of the Alexandria City Basketball League will be held tonight at the Community Center at 7 o'clock. Managers of all teams are requested to be present as several important matters will come up for final consideration. This meeting is the most important one to be held by the league to date.

Entries for the amateur wrestling tournament to be staged at the Community Center are still coming in. All who desire to compete are requested to hand on their names as early as possible so that pairings may be made for the trials.

Tim Jordan, assistant business manager of the Nationals, will talk to the boys tomorrow night at the Community Center at 7 o'clock. Tim knows baseball and also knows how to fight the Boche, and he'll have a host of stories on tap to tell the youngsters tomorrow night. Big Cy McDonald will also be here. A cordial invitation is tendered every one to hear Clark Griffith's latest addition to his managerial staff.

The Virginias meet the Lyceums Monday night at the Armory and another good game should result. In their previous meeting, the Lyceums were forced to take the short end of the score, and they will be out for revenge.

Saturday, the Terminal Y. M. C. A., five of Washington, will meet the Dreadnoughts in the Armory and Al Watts, Griff's young infielder, will be seen in action. Manager Griffiths of the Nationals is figuring on using Watts in his infield this season and Al is keeping in shape by playing basketball.

Ike Dreifus, of the Dreadnoughts, and Manager Wheatley of the Lyceums are both confined to their beds with slight attacks of the la grippe. Both hope to be out by Friday night

BRYAN ATTACKS HOMER CUMMINGS

Is Very Severe on National Democratic Chairman

AVERSE TO EDWARDS

Commoner Says He Will Resign as Delegate if Nebraska Instructs for New Jersey Governor.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 22.—William Jennings Bryan, speaking here in the interest of the prohibition drive, last night launched an attack on Homer Cummings, national Democratic chairman.

Bryan declared that Cummings must either separate from Gov. Edwards of New Jersey or resign as head of the Democratic party. "The Democratic panty is too near to me to ever consent to have its interests allied with those of the liquor interest," said Bryan.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 22.—In an address yesterday under the auspices of the Antisaloon League, Mr. Bryan announced his opposition to Gov. Edwards of New Jersey as the nominee of the Democratic party for the Presidency, and declared that if Chairman Homer S. Cummings' address of last night at the banquet in honor of Gov. Edwards correctly expressed his attitude, that he would oppose him for chairman of the national Democratic committee.

Mr. Bryan's bitterest attack was on Gov. Edwards.

"Edwards has picked out my own State, Nebraska, to launch his campaign in," Mr. Bryan went on. "But if Nebraska instructs for Edwards I'll never be a delegate to the national convention," he declared.

Referring to Gov. Edwards, Mr. Bryan reiterated:

"If Nebraska instructs for Edwards and I am a delegate, I'll resign. I'll never vote to nominate a man like that."

Following an eloquent appeal for support of the Antisaloon League, he digressed to say:

"Twenty-four years ago I commenced running for President," and laughter followed.

"Nineteen hundred years ago," he said "the wise men came from the East. And New York editors think they are still coming. No reform ever started in New York, and they can have no faith in reform of any kind.'

Referring to the possibility of Republican victory this year, Mr. Bryan said:

"God did not put the impossible in the hands of any human being, especially a Republican, and no Republican is going to be permitted to nominate the next President of the United States."

SPLITS ON ARTICLE X

Republicans Sitting Tight for Lodge and Lenroot Reservations

Hopes entertained by Democrat Senators that they would be able to get Republican leaders to accept a compromise reservation on Article 10 of the league of nations covenant were dispelled at yesterday's session of the bi-partisan conference in the office of Senator Lodge.

When the Senators emerged from the conference they declared that the possibility of agreement was further away than ever. Every suggestion made by Senators Hitchcock, Simmons and Walsh, of Montana, for changes in the Lodge reservation were incontinently rejected by Senator Lodge and his associates.

Senator Hitchcok said "The fur began to fly" when the conference decided to take up for discussion the Lodge reservation on Article 10.

"It is still flying," he added. "We have not agreed to anything on this particular reservation."

The conferees are also deadlocked on the Lenroot reservation, which absolves the United States from giving heed to any adverse decision by the league assembly on which any nation is permitted to cast more than one vote.

METHODISTS UNITE

(Now that the various branches of the Methodist Church have agreed to forget all differences and consolidate into one organization there seems no reason why other evangelical churches should not hasten the process which has been under discussion so long, suggests the Philadelphia Inquirer. "Not all of the divisions have been due to the slavery question; it is unfortunate that in the early part of the Nineteenth Century the centrifugal tendency was so great as to cause many splits on minor doctrinal matters. There seemed to be much more stress laid on theology than on Christian conduct.

"It is the earnest wish of all good people of whatever religious persuasion that the bickerings in the Christian Church should cease. It is fortunate that many considerations have tended toward harmony in the last few years and the war seems to have helped in the right direction. No longer do particular texts or certain creeds and dogmas of slight variation from those of the larger denominations afford sufficient basis for maintaining a separate church organization. The Methodists claim a membership of more than six millions, communicants only counted for the union, which is a great advantage over half a dozen smaller bodies having the same general tenets. The Baptists could probably have about the same number in a single organization.

"At a time when most of the churches in the country are combining to raise a vast fund for world evangelization and constructive work at home there should be the greatest possible harmony. Contrary to the opinion of some evangelists the average man is honest, upright and religious. He may have a rather hazy notion of theological values and probably doesn't care so long as he is a good citizen. The conduct of life is what counts for most in these days and a liberalizing of the churches will cause many to enter doors which have long been barred by dogmas now considered inessential."

JONAH AND THE WHALE

Jonah and the whale have become an international problem, Chicago investigators say Jonah didn't and the whale couldn't while Dr. Moses Gasten, Hebrew student in London declares it quite possible that Jonah entered the whale's system and rode therein with little embarrassment to himself and none to the whale.

The whale's throat was too small and Jonah too large and anyway the big fish is a symbol of Hades in Hebrew, Dr. R. G. Moulton, of Chicago University, recently announced.

While the world is perplexed over some of the most vital issues which have confronted it since the creation—the proposed league of nations, prohibition, woman suffrage, etc.,—the story of Jonah is about to be submitted to an international court of inquiry.

It might be suggested that One greater than any international court of inquiry corroborated this interesting story, and that should be an end to all contention as to whether or not the experience of the Hebrew prophet is to be taken literally or figuratively.

While we have no intention of addressing a sermon to the readers of the Gazette, a few words on the book of Jonah may prove acceptable to such of our readers who take the Bible literally.

This short but interesting book is suggestive. It is the only portion of the Old Testament directed to the Gentile world. There is but one book of the New Testament dedicated to the Hebrew race—the General Epistle of James. Jonah when he appeared in the streets of Nineveh was what might have been termed a tramp preacher, and a foreigner, too. His message was brief but to the point, as he used the words of Jehovah Himself. The result was marvelous. A city with a population about as large as that of Baltimore took heed and all the inhabitants from the king to the humblest peasant sat in sackcloth and ashes beseeching the Creator to look upon them in mercy.

The Gospel has been preached during the past nineteen hundred years, but no such fruits have been gathered as those by Jonah in the city on the Tigres.

GRIM WINTER

We are now about half way through the winter of 1919-1920. As is usual, so-called weather sages a few months ago drew forecasts, some prognosticating a mild winter, while others from signs they observed were equally sure that the cold period would prove abnormal.

Both schools of prophets, so far, have failed in their forecasts. The winter has been what may be termed normal. The cold is no more intense than what might have been expected. The river, it is true, is blocked by ice, but this is often the case during the frigid season. Last winter was an exception, however, but mild winters had been experienced hereabouts years before, notably one about half a century ago.

Their prowes reenforced with cement to break the ice, boats of Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company are the only craft plying on the Potomac able to navigate on account of the ice.

Virtually all small craft have been forced from the river by the accumulations.

The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, however, reports that conditions are much better than last week. The steamers of this company are still arriving and departing from Alexandria about on time.

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS

How to get a raise without touching the boss for one, without working harder or overtime, are being explained by the National Thrift Week Committee of the District of Columbia.

The principles of self-promotion which are the basic principles of National Thrift Week are: Work and earn; make a budget; keep a record of expenditures; have a bank account; carry life insurance; make a will; own your own home; pay your bills promptly; invest in government securities; share with others

The interests of the employer and employe, it is explained, are identical. Avoidance of waste in industry is as essential as economy in the home. Larger outputs are as desirable as better incomes.

It should be clear to every persons who toils that the interests of the employer and employee are identical, although in this day it is difficult to get many to realize this fact.

It is often alleged, and in most cases truthfully, that it is the aim of too many dependent upon their daily labor to produce the least possible result—in other words to loaf on jobs.

BLOW TO BIG ARMY PLAN

Harreld, Opponent of Compulsory Training, Elected on Committee

Washington, Jan. 22.—Opponents of military training and the "Big Army" idea scored a decisive victory in the House yesterday when the Republican committee on committees named as a member of the Committee on Military Affairs, Representative John W. Harreld, of Oklahoma, over Representative Crowther, of New York, and Representative Newton, of Missouri.

Mr. Harreld announced that he was elected on a platform opposing compulsory training. His vote may decide whether the committee will include provision for such training in the House army reorganization bill.

Election of Harreld just when the military policy and program of the nation is being framed by the Military Affairs Committee caused an outburst of protest among House Republicans. Threats were made by many Republicans that the moment Representative Frank W. Mondell Republican floor leader, endeavors to have the House confirm the action of the committee, they will endeavor to overturn the action of the committee.

Bitter contention has been the order within Republican ranks for several days as to the man who should be appointed to fill the vacancy on the Military Affairs Committee. With the recent resignation from Congress of Representative L. Guardia, of New York, the committee membership was equally divided between the advocates and opponents of military training and the big military ideas.

JAPS WITHDRAWING TROOPS

Have No Territorial Ambitions in Siberia

Tokyo, Jan. 22.—Japan's object in agreeing to co-operate with the United States in supporting Szecho-Slovak troops in Siberia has been attained and the withdrawal of Japanese troops from Siberia will follow, advisory diplomatic council yesterday according to newspapers here.

It was asserted at the meeting it is said, that Japan had no territorial ambitions in Siberia and that troops now being sent to that country are merely to replace losses. It was declared that fundamental policies will not be affected by this step. The council is reported to have indorsed the cabinet's decision not to interfere further in the internal affairs of Siberia and to adhere strictly to the government's declaration when it entered into its agreement with America in 1918.

Says Phosphates Make Beautiful Women and Strong

Healthy, Vigorous, Robust Men

Physicians all over the world are prescribing phosphates to build up run down anemic conditions and those who have treated their patients with Argo-Phosphate are changing thin, anemic women with toneless tissues, flabby flesh, into the most beautiful rosy cheeked and plump round formed women imaginable.

Atlanta, Ga. Dr. Jacobson said in a recent interview that 90 per cent of anemia comes from nervous breakdown which can only be corrected by supplying the necessary phosphates to the nervous system that is lacking in the food you eat, and this can be quickly supplied by taking one or two 5-grain Argo-Phosphate tablets after each meal, and at bed time. It will in many cases make a pale scrawney face the picture of health in a few days, I have seen women that I expected would have to be kept under treatment for months restored to perfect health in one or two weeks time.

Special Notice. The Argo-Phosphate recommended by Dr. F. H. Jacobson contains phosphates such as are prescribed by leading physicians through out the world, and it will be found the most effective form for treating patients with Nervous Dyspepsia, Stomach troubles, Brain Fag, and Nervous Prostration. It will renew youthful vim and vigor and build up the whole body. Argo Phosphate is dispensed by Gibsons Drug Store.

Swift & Company's 1919 Earnings

How They Affected You

During the twelve months ended November 1, 1919, (its fiscal year), Swift & Company transacted its large volume of business on the smallest margin of profit in its history.

Sales over $1,200,000,000.00

Net earnings $13,870,181.34

Our shipments were in excess of 5,500,000,000 lbs.

This means that our earnings were less than 1⅕ cents on each dollar of sales, or a quarter of a cent on each pound shipped.

Consumer—

The average consumer eats about ½ lb. of meat per day—180 lbs. per year. If he purchased only Swift & Company products he would have contributed only 45 cents (180 lbs. @ ¼ cent a pound)—a year profit to Swift & Company for its investment and service, less than one cent per week.

Our earnings were so small as to have practically no effect on the family meat bill.

Live Stock Raiser—

Swift & Company handled in 1919 over 16,000,000 head of live stock. You can figure for yourself that our earnings of 1⅕ cents on each dollar of sales are too small to affect the price you received for your stock.

We paid all it was humanly possible to pay considering what the meat and by-products could be sold for.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Public school officials of Norfolk yesterday announced that the teaching of German would be resumed in the local public schools February 2.

Republicans of Richmond, for the first time in more than a quarter of a century, will have a candidate for mayor and other city offices in the field this year.

Owing to the absence from the city of Governor Davis, who is in New York to represent the State at a meeting of the directors of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, the Federal suffrage amendment will probably not be transmitted to the general assembly until he returns.

Thought to have been despondent over the loss of $580 that he had received from the government as a part of his allowance under the provision for wounded soldiers, James Finnegan, 39, of Richmond, was found dead in his room in Baltimore early yesterday morning. A chair on the bed near the open gas jet indicated that it had been used to enable the man to place his head near the jet.

A warrant has been issued by Magistrate Garland for Dora Johnson, colored, a teacher in the colored public shool at Covesville, Albemarle county, who is charged with infanticide. The girl, a graduate of Hartshorn College, Richmond, gave birth to a child in the schoolroom last Friday, and it is alleged, placed the body of the infant in a stove in the schoolroom. A warrant was issued for the girl Sunday night but before it could be served the teacher had disappeared from her home on foot.

Russell Woody, of Madison Heights, near Lynchburg, who was returning in an automobile yesterday from Amherst, where he had procured a license to wed Miss Ethel Proffitt, also of Madison Heights, was instantly killed when the machine plunged over a steep embankment near Sweet Briar College. Tennie Woody, brother of the dead man, and Louis Dodson, who were also in the car, were seriously injured. Henry Daniel, the chauffeur, escaped unhurt. The accident occurred when the steering gear became locked.

Woody and Miss Proffitt were to have been married next Monday.

CHILDREN BURN TO DEATH

Upper Marlboro, Md., Jan. 22.—When fire destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer T. Williams, of Malcolm, in lower Prince Georges county, a few days ago, two of their little children, aged 2 and 3, were burned to death. At the time Mr. Williams was at work in Washington and Mrs. Williams was at the barn. The remains of the victims were buried in Emmanuel Church cemetery, Baden, this county.

GIRL HELD IN ATLANTA

Confesses Then Denies, Being Missing Chicago Woman—Has "Helen" Tattooed on Arm

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—Dressed in the masculine uniform of an aviator, a young woman being held at police station here last night while frankly puzzled police sought to determine whether she is Jeanne Dekay, missing protege of Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago.

The girl in appearance corresponds to press descriptions of Miss Dekay except that her hair is bobbed and the word "Helen" is tattooed on her arm.

Under questioning today, police said she first declared she "knew" Miss Dekay, and then said she was Miss Dekay, but last night denied it. Newspaper men who talked with her told the same story. She first gave her name as Jeanne Delonge, Belgian widow of a French soldier.

The young woman was arrested Monday because she was wearing men's clothing on the streets, but she asserted she was an aviatrix and that she merely happened to appear in her uniform. She showed such a knowledge of airplanes that Chief of Police Beavers freed her.

Yesterday she was arrested again and a blanket charge of "disorderly conduct" was docketed against her as the result of appearing in the lobby of a down town hotel in men's attire. Today the police started to investigate whether she was Miss Dekay and communicated with Chicago authorities. The young woman will be held pending definite determination of her identity.

Historic Konigsplatz Becomes a Horse Market

Berlin, Jan. 22.—Historic Koenigsplatz, which is flanked by the Column of Victory, the general staff building and the monuments of Bismarck Von Moltke and Von Roon, was the scene of last week's disorders and today was converted into horse market conducted by the city in pursuance to the provision of the Versailles treaty which calls for delivery of horses to France and Belgium.

Owners of horses in this city were threatened with heavy fines if they failed to appear and the result was a gathering of horses of all breeds. As the general average was below the required standard, most of the animals were returned to their owners. It is not expected Berlin will be able to contribute a perceptible number of horses to the general levy as the better class of steeds is being held in the rural districts.

MEXICO GETS INTO ACTION

Persons Suspected of Murdering Americans Arrested.

Washington, January 22.—Mexican authorities in the Tampico district have reported the capture of the persons suspected of the murder of P. J. Rooney and Earl Bowles, American citizens, and of two probable accomplices, according to information furnished the American Embassy at Mexico City by the Mexican Foreign Office in a note dated January 17.

In advising the State Department of this yesterday the Embassy said the Mexican authorities reported that a careful investigation of the case was continuing.

LIFTS BAN OFF DRILLING

Threatened Fuel Oil Crisis in Mexico Has Been Averted

Washington, Jan. 22.—The grave crisis that threatened to deprive the merchantile marine of the Shipping Board of fuel oil because the 46 American companies which have wells in Mexico refused to submit bids for the Shipping Board's needs for oil for the ships for the next year have been averted.

A telegram received in Washington last night by the representative of one of the greatest companies in the Tampico district stated that President Carranza has granted the petition of the 46 companies to continue drilling and all other operations connected with the oil industry, pending final action by the Mexican Congress on the proposed oil legislation.

It is distinctly understood by the Mexican government and the representatives of the oil companies that the permit requested by the oil companies and granted by the Mexican government is not to be a factor in the controversy between the companies and the government over the proposed legislation.

DUTCH FIRM ON KAISER

No Indication of Willingness to Extradite Former Emperor

The Hague, Jan. 22.—The reply of the Dutch government to the demand of the allied powers that the former German emperor should be given up to them for trial, is being drafted and will be forwarded some time this week to the Dutch minister at Paris for communication to the allies.

Although Holland is determined to stick to diplomatic precedent and not publish or intimate the text of the reply until it is delivered, there is apparently no cause to make any change in the prediction of the Dutch newspapers that the Dutch government will decline to accede to the demand.

It is said that the former German emperor had been in no way consulted.

Copenhagen, Jan. 22.—Eighteen passengers were killed and 20 injured in a railway collision outside of Schneidmuhl, Prussia, Monday night.

THIRTEEN NO HOODOO

Deschanel Was Born on 13th Married on 13th and Elected the 13th

Paris, Jan. 22.—It is obvious that the number thirteen holds luck for Paul Deschanel, the new President of France.

"I was born on the thirteenth day of the month, married on the thirteenth and it was on the thirteenth that the Chamber made me a candidate for President of France," he said today, when he was asked to speak about his life.

"Thus," he added, "my life has been a very simple one."

Mr. Deschanel might have added that his name contains thirteen letters.

MEATS AND VEGETABLES RISE

Wholesale Rates up Over 10 Per cent Since August—Some Groceries Fall

Increases of from 10 to 100 per cent in wholesale prices of staple meats and vegetables in New York city since August 15 were shown in figures made public yesterday by the Department of Agriculture. At the same time the Department of Justice announced that decreases in fifteen out of nineteen articles classified as groceries in New York city were shown during 1919.

The Department of Agriculture's figures showed that from August 15, the approximate date of the launching of the Department of Justice's campaign to reduce living costs, prices of staple articles in New York increased as follows: White potatoes 13 per cent and cabbage more than 100 per cent, onions from $3.25 a hundred pounds to $6.50 a hundred pounds and apples from $6.50 a barrel to from $5 to $8.50.

Out of twelve staple meat cuts figures showed increases in six varieties. Beef advanced from $12 and $16 a hundred pounds on August 15 to $16 and $17 this month and lamb increased $1 a hundred pounds for choice cuts, $2 a hundred for medium and $4 a hundred for common cuts.

JENKINS' CASE SETTLED

State Department Has no Information to Corroborate Report

Mexico City, Jan. 22.—The newspaper Excelsior quotes Hilario Medina sub-secretary of Foreign Affairs, as saying that the case of William O. Jenkins, American Consular agent at Puebla, has been settled satisfactorily. No details of the alleged settlement are available here.

Washington, Jan. 22.—State Department officials said yesterday that no information that the case of Consular Agent Jenkins had been settled had been received by them. The latest dispatch bearing on his case, they added, came from the Embassy at Mexico City ten days ago and it is said the case was about to be taken up in the courts.

EDITORIAL

It has always been the policy of this store to refrain from advertising sales when we felt that there was no cause for them and consequently they have not been frequent.

In these days of high prices, the prices of a great many of our lines have become prohibitive.

We are therefore forced to discontinue quite a few and we wish to announce that on these numbers, we have greatly reduced the prices, some below cost; and we are confident that you will find here bargains of exceptional merit.

HELPLESS POWHATAN

Bad Weather Conditions Faced by Disabled Transport

Halifax, Nova Scotia, Jan. 22.—Anxiety was felt in marine circles last night for the safety of the United States army transport Powhatan and her 271 passengers after a wireless message was received from Capt. Travis, of the Canadian government steamship Lady Laurier, stating that his vessel was alongside the transport and that weather conditions were bad. The brief radio said:

"Lady Laurier alongside Powhatan Weather conditions bad."

The disabled transport, without light or heat and her firerooms flooded with water, was plunging about in a heavy sea this afternoon 300 miles from this port, with no immediate prospect of obtaining a tow or having her 271 passengers taken off.

During the night the freighter Western Comet succeeded in getting a line aboard and towing the transport 48 miles, toward this port, when she was compelled to abandon the effort. The transport Northern Pacific and other boats are standing by ready to take off her passengers and render other assistance, as soon as the seas moderate so it can be given.

A blizzard, which raged off Nova Scotia yesterday morning, had spent its fury by noon and it was considered possible that an attempt might be made to get another line to the disabled ship or take off her passengers.

New York, Jan. 22.—A wireless message, received late yesterday from the Powhatan, said:

"All going well on board. No change in ship's condition."

Orders issued to the transport Martha Washington, now at sea, to proceed to the Powhatan's assistance, were canceled.

WRECK VICTIM ROBBED

$20,000 Reported Taken From Body of Immigrant

Pittsburgh, Jan. 22.—Joseph I. Lloor, who was killed in the wreck of the Pittsburgh and Chicago express between East Palestine and New Waterford, Ohio, Tuesday, was robbed of $20,000, according to reports which reached here yesterday from East Palestine. J. M. Van Fossen, coroner of Columiana county, is investigating the cause of the wreck.

Pennsylvania Railroad officials here said they had heard of the loss of the money, and had instructed employes on the ground to investigate it carefully, but no report had yet been made.

Lloor, according to information received here, was an immigrant from Siberia, on his way to join his son in Fort Wayne, Ind.

THE MIGHTY HAVE FALLEN

Berlin, Jan. 22.—The plight of retired Austrian officers is illustrated by an incident reported from a fashionable suburb of Vienna. A house-owner was in search of a porter, and made his wants known to the Officers' League. Among the applicants were a major general, three colonels, two lieutenant colonels, seven majors and eighteen captains.

The explosion was caused by a hot box in a machine. Flames spread rapidly over the work room. Several boys and girls jumped four stories into snow banks. Their injuries were chiefly fractured arms and legs.

Two girls jumped with their cloth ing ablaze. Fears were entertained that other employes were trapped and burned.

RICHMOND—Tom Mix

A delightful love story interwoven with fasconating suggestions of the golden days of romance in which a typical American, a true knight errant of the west, wins the heart of a refugee European princess, is pictured in "Rough Riding Romance" in which Tom Mix, the William Fox star of Western photodrama, plays the redoubtable but shy lover. Some of the greatest feats of horsemanship strength and daring ever put into a photoplay. "Rough Riding Romance" began a two days run at the Richmond Theatre yesterday. The picture will be repeated again today.

Madaline Traverse will be seen at the Ingomar today in 'The Snares of Paris."
